10 Not only fresh smelling but clean burning, these new candles from Golden Bay's Living Light Candles are one sure way to buy high quality, New Zealand made and environmentally-friendly products. They are made with 80 percent plant wax and come in a range of new fragrances. www.livinglightcandles.com

Your best bio

11 Bio painting is not only comforting to those measuring their carbon footprints. With the new enamel Bio Paint range, it is also long lasting. This new paint creates a finish that lasts for over 16 years, say its makers. More information at www.biopaints.com

Under wear

12 With a name like Shadylace Parasol, it's no surprise to find that this sun umbrella is slightly less than opaque. It casts pretty shadows of branches and leaves and was designed for Droog by Chris Kabel. Enquiries to Simon James Design. www.simonjamesdesign.com
